

ACIS Newsletter

Published for the American Committee for Irish Studies

Hollins College, Virginia, 24020

Frank O'Brien, Editor
Hollins College

May, 1969

Jim Ford, Bibliographical Editor
Boston Public Library

CONFERENCE ON IRISH STUDIES

sponsored by

The American Committee for Irish Studies

and

Marquette University

Thursday, May 8

8:00 p.m. A Yeats' play presented by the Depot Players of Urbana, Illinois, Director, Brian Laverty at the Teatro Maria, Bellarmine Hall, between 11th and 12th on Michigan

Friday, May 9

9:15 a.m. Registration, second floor lounge, Brooks Memorial Union

9:45 a.m. Welcome: Arthur C. Moeller, Academic Vice-President, Marquette University, 205, 206, 207, Brooks Memorial Union

10:00 a.m. THE IRISH-AMERICAN EXPERIENCE (Part I)
208, 209, 210, Brooks Memorial Union
Chairman: Thomas N. Brown, University of Massachusetts at Boston
"Pioneers of the American Ghetto", Lawrence J. McCaffrey, Marquette University
"Irish-America: the Literary Expression", William V. Shannon, The New York Times
"The Varieties of the Irish-American Experience", James P. Walsh, San Jose State College

1:00 p.m. THE IRISH-AMERICAN EXPERIENCE (Part II)
208, 209, 210, Brooks Memorial Union
Chairman: Gilbert A. Cahill, State University of New York College at Cortland
"The American Irish--First Emigrants from a Ghetto", Rev. Andrew M. Greeley, Program Director, National Opinion Research Center, University of Chicago
"From Shanties to Lace Curtains: Graphic Images of the Irish in American Magazines", John Appel, James Madison College, Michigan State University

3:00 p.m. Coffee - Faculty Lounge, Brooks Memorial Union

4:00 p.m. THE IRISH-AMERICAN EXPERIENCE: A DISCUSSION
Chairman: Raymond J. McCall, Marquette University
Panelists: Brown, Cahill, Greeley, Shannon, Appel, Walsh, McCaffrey

Friday, May 9

6:30 - BANQUET AND BUSINESS MEETING
11:00 p.m. Brown Bottle, Schlitz Brewery, 304 W. Galena
Chairman: Harold Orel, University of Kansas
Speaker: Roger McHugh or Maurice Harmon, University College,
Dublin

Saturday, May 10

9:30 a.m. IRISH HISTORY
Todd Wehr Chemistry Building
Chairman: Joseph M. Hernon, Jr., University of Massachusetts at Amherst
"The Cromwellian Settlement of County Dublin", Lawrence Arnold,
Fitchburg State College
"Law and Order in Eighteenth Century Ireland", Joseph Starr,
Wisconsin State University at Oshkosh
Comments: Helen Mulvey, Connecticut College

1:00 p.m. IRISH LITERATURE: JOYCE AND MOORE
Todd Wehr Chemistry Building
Chairman: Kevin Sullivan, Columbia University
"The Text of Ulysses", Jack P. Dalton, Canisius College
"Esther Waters: An Irish Story", Janet F. Egleson, State University of New York, Stony Brook

3:00 p.m. Coffee - Faculty Lounge, Brooks Memorial Union

4:00 p.m. THE IRISH PEASANT IN HISTORY AND LITERATURE
Chairman: John R. Moore, Hollins College
"Secret Agrarian Societies in Nineteenth Century Ireland",
Galen Broecker, University of Tennessee
"The Peasant in Irish Literature", Benedict Kiely

9:00 p.m. Reception - 3259 N. Hackett

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Rev. Robert Boyle, S.J., Department of English, Marquette University
Thomas Hachey, Department of History, Marquette University
Lawrence J. McCaffrey, Department of History, Marquette University

Arrangements for the ACIS CONFERENCE were made by the staff of the Continuing Education Department, Marquette University.

IMPORTANT. PLEASE NOTE:

Contact Mrs. Rita Wigg, Division of Continuing Education, Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53233 for reservations.

The banquet and reservation cost is $5.50 and must be made by May 1. The Brown Bottle can accommodate 125 persons.
